

Homeless, drug addiction and project for life: an experience report in CAPS-ad

Abstract

Psychosocial vulnerability that afflicts the dependent users of alcohol and other drugs are recurring issues in CAPS-ad. Therefore, it is necessary to discuss the psychosocial care of the homeless. This experience report illustrates an intervention in CAPS-ad “Continente” in Florianópolis and a construction of the singular therapeutic project in the psychosocial rehabilitation of a homeless patients with alcohol dependence.

Key-words: CAPS ad; Alcohol and drug dependency; Psychosocial vulnerability; Homeless; Mental health; Psychosocial care.